DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The applicants' amendment filed 5/11/2006 has been fully considered and made of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-4, 7, 9 and 15, 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Holiday (US 6,293,004).

As applied to claim 1, Holiday discloses a connector axial compression tool having a lever end comprising: and a cable end, a body a cable (12, Fig. 12), clamp coupled to the cable end (C) of a cavity formed in the body; a cradle slidably (50) mounted within the cavity supporting a shoulder clamp; a lever mechanism (22) mounted through the coupled to the cradle and slidably body; and a handle pivotally attached (24) to the body and the lever mechanism operable to actuate axial movements of the cradle.

Art Unit: 3729

As applied to claims 2 and 7, Holiday discloses removably attached (R, Fig. 13).
As applied to claims 3 and 4, Holiday discloses biased into a closed position (column 5, lines 36-65+).

As applied to claim 15, Holiday discloses the cable clamp is adapted to abut the connector the cable end of a cable clamp sleeve of the connector (R, Fig. 12).

As applied to claim 16, Holiday discloses the cable clamp forms an innerdiameter that is less than a cable clamp sleeve diameter (R) of the connector and greater than a cable diameter.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 5, 6, 8, 10-14 and 17 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior does not teach all limitations of claimed invention including:

In claim 21:

- a clamp arm hingeably attached to the shoulder clamp;
- a magnetic contact adapted to retain the shoulder clamp and the clamp arm in a closed position, and
- a mounting hole in the body for mounting the compression tool to a desired surface;
- the cradle adapted to support a connector body of the connector without interference with a connector interface of the connector.

5. Claim 21 is allowed.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 5/11/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In regard to the merits of Holiday, the applicants contend that Holiday does not teach: "a cradle slidably mounted within the cavity supporting" (as recited in claim 1, line 5) and "a shoulder clamp" (claim 1, line 5).

The examiner traverses for following the reasons:

Element 50 referred to as a housing in Holiday can be read as a cradle. The claimed "cradle" does not distinguish over the structure of the housing 50 of Holiday

For further clarification, the claimed "a shoulder clamp" was read as the U-shape die portion 18 in Holiday.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
